An Oscar-worthy residence

House&Loft – Luxury Real Estate Agency based in Milan, obtains the selling rights of the “Call Me by Your Name” villa.

A villa in the countryside, the summer, the feeling of fresh grass under the feet and the sound of a river in the distance make the atmosphere for Call Me by Your Name, the acclaimed movie directed by the Italian Luca Guadagnino, nominated for 4 Academy Awards, including Best Picture.

As the two main characters, this charming 17th-century house plays a huge role in the story; set designer Violante Visconti (grand-daughter of director Luchino Visconti) serves to highlight the remarkable character of this house and chooses with accuracy the most realistic and credible decors for the setting of this brilliant love story.

The mansion is surrounded by a huge 2-hectares park with ancient trees and minor buildings, located nearby a little town in the Cremona province, with a population of less than 1,000 people.

A great opportunity for film lovers but also for those investors interested in finding a very unique house.
